

MARCH TO CAPITAL IS FUNSTON'S PLEA

Failure of A. B. C. Peace Negotiations Seems Certain.

NAVY RENEWS ITS ACTIVITY

Admiral Mayo Anxious For Authorization To Take Tampico—Huerta Threatened by Rebel Attack—Fighting in Capital Predicted by Those Familiar With Situation.

Washington, May 6.—Certain failure of the A. B. C. peace negotiations was predicted in Washington, following the elimination of General Carranza as a factor and the probability of President Wilson's refusal to appoint mediators lest it be a recognition of General Huerta.

Renewed activity by the war and navy departments in preparing to send troops and supplies to Vera Cruz indicated that open hostilities are considered more imminent than at any time since the occupation.

Reports from Vera Cruz that General Huerta is massing an army of 15,000 to drive out the Americans and has mined the railroads to Mexico City to prevent invasion of the capital added to the belief that American troops will soon be fighting in Mexico.

Huerta's preparations for war are known to be a source of worry to General Funston at Vera Cruz, and it is understood that he would welcome orders to start for Mexico City at once.

Admiral Mayo has informed the navy department that he would have no trouble in taking Tampico with his present force. It was learned that he has hinted several times it would be advisable to capture the city.

Emiliano Zapata threatens to attack Mexico City. He announces that Huerta, Blanquet and other army officers will be put to death if he captures them.

General Refugio Velasco, driven out of Torreon by Villa, is expected to lead a military revolt against Huerta, whom he blames for not properly supporting him.

Pedro Lascurain, foreign minister under Madero, has disappeared from Mexico City, and it is feared he has been assassinated.

If Rear Admiral Mayo sends his vessels up the Panuco river, at Tampico, the rebels threaten to flood the river with oil and fire it.

Peace Negotiations Stew. What is recognized unofficially here as certain failure of the peace negotiations of the A. B. C. envoys was emphasized by the renewed activity of the war and navy departments in preparing for a new outbreak in hostilities in Mexico.

That the Huerta government, despite its appointment of mediation envoys, expects war rather than peace and is actively preparing for it was proved by a dispatch from Vera Cruz to the war department saying that the Mexican federal troops have mined the railroad tracks from Vera Cruz to Mexico City in preparation for the destruction of the road in the event the American forces attempt to reach the capital.

Peace Envoys Meet. The South American peace negotiators met as usual, but with less appearance of optimism than at any time since they undertook the work of restoring peace in Mexico. The probability of President Wilson's refusing to appoint mediators lest it be taken as a recognition of Huerta and the final elimination of General Carranza from the negotiations has almost wrecked the hopes of those who have been looking forward to a peaceful settlement.

Preparations for war on the part of the United States are evident in many quarters. Among the most important moves are those in progress at Galveston, where the water front is humming with preparations for the shipment of more men and supplies to Vera Cruz. The four transports—the Menela, the Sponner, the McClellan and the Kilpatrick—scarcely had swung alongside their piers after their trip from Vera Cruz when scores of cleaners were put to work scouring the ships and putting them in condition to take on more troops.

O'SHAUGHNESSYS REACH U. S.

Lost Baggage and Had to Buy Clothing in New Orleans.

New Orleans, May 6.—Mexicans did not even except Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American charge d'affaires at Mexico City, in preying upon American property after the fall of Vera Cruz. Practically all of the baggage of Mr. and Mrs. O'Shaughnessy was stolen from the special train that Huerta provided for the charge and his party to transport them to Vera Cruz after he had been headed his passports.

Mr. O'Shaughnessy arrived on the special train, and early in the day he and Mrs. O'Shaughnessy began a shopping tour to replenish their wardrobe. The party left later for Washington.

When shown a dispatch from Vera

Cruz saying that he had submitted to Washington, at the president's request, a list of names of Mexicans who might act as a council to take charge of the government in the case of the downfall of General Huerta, Mr. O'Shaughnessy said he knew nothing about it. He refused to discuss the Mexican situation in any of its phases.

A BROTHER'S STORY

Mr. Potter Gives His Version of His Sister's Sad Death.

The following version of the sad death of Miss Bell Potter was brought to the Progress office by one of her brothers and is printed at his request.

Miss Bell Potter, youngest daughter of Wilson Potter, ended her life by taking carbolic acid at the home of her brother, Lee Potter, on Monday, May 4, about 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Bell was in the best health and seemed to be in good spirits in the morning. She left her brother's home to go to town, where she met a friend and appeared to be enjoying herself. She left her friend and returned to the home of her brother. When she was asked to eat dinner she said she did not want anything.

Going into another room she wrote a letter, later going upstairs to her brother's room, who was sick in bed and asked him how he felt. On hearing him say he felt better Bell went into the next room and drank the acid and then ran into her brother's room, falling into his arms. Dr. Yeane was called and was soon at the house, but it was too late as the deadly drug had placed her beyond all earthly help.

Bell Potter was born and reared in Clearfield and had a host of friends, being of a cheerful disposition. She was 19 years, 4 months and 9 days of age, and is survived by her father and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Thomas Miller, of Duquesne, Mrs. James Coyle and Mrs. Thomas Spence, of McKeesport; Mrs. Harry Rife, of Philadelphia, Kay, Cecil and Lee, of Clearfield.

BURNING SHIP A MYSTERY OF THE SEA

Sighted 300 Miles Off Cape Race; No Sign of Life.

Halifax, N. S., May 6.—An unknown steamship is burning 300 miles off Cape Race. The fate of her crew and possible passengers is a mystery, and even her name is hidden by the pall of smoke that hangs over her.

The burning steamer was sighted by the Seydlitz, bound from Bremen to New York. The German ship found no small boats near by, and no sign of life could be seen on board. A wireless call for help brought a response from the Franconia, fifty miles east and bound for New York, and from the Olympic, 200 miles west and headed for New York.

The Sable Island radio station has reported to the Canadian marine department that a message was picked up late Sunday night. It was a faint call, and only a fragment which said "We are on fire; hurry up" was distinguished.

The foremast and the funnel of the burning ship are gone. She is high out of the water, with a high poop, and from appearances has been on fire for several days.

EXPLOSION AT PANAMA.

Eight Persons Killed and Nineteen Hurt—Dynamite Magazine Blew Up.

Panama, May 6.—An explosion at the dynamite magazine of the government of Panama killed eight persons. Nineteen others were seriously injured. The property was destroyed.

The explosion was caused by a brush fire, which made its way to the interior of the building. Six of the dead and most of the wounded were firemen, who had been summoned to combat the flames. A man and a woman who were watching the blaze from a distance were literally torn to pieces.

The concussion of the explosion shook Panama. Besides obliterating the magazine, the explosion caused considerable property damage in the neighborhood.

JOE HOWARD PLEADS GUILTY

Says He Robbed Summerville Store at Winburne

PREPARING FOR CIMO CASE

After a Few More Unimportant Matters Have Been Disposed of the Trial of Philip Cimo, Indicted for the Killing of Marie Burzotto Will Be Taken Up

Only a few more petty cases stand in the way of the beginning of the trial of Philip Cimo, indicted for the killing of Marie Murzotto, the pretty Italian girl who was mortally shot in Clearfield, on Sunday, March 8, 1914. It is expected that before evening the work of securing a jury will have been begun and it is probable that night sessions will be held in order to expedite the trial of the case.

The jury in the cases in which Peter Kolash and Matt Szozodos, both of DuBois, were alternately prosecutor and defendant, brought in a verdict of not guilty, but that each litigant pay the costs of the other side. The court set this verdict aside, and both men were declared acquitted, the county to pay the costs.

Szozodos was charged with aggravated assault and battery with intent to rob, and Kolash was accused of assault and battery.

Winburne Robbery Case.

Tuesday afternoon the case in which Joe Howard was charged with breaking into, entering and robbing the Summerville store, Tuesday night April 14, at Winburne was taken up. A night session was held and after wasting the time of the court Joe evidently thought it would be to his advantage to plead guilty, which he did and will be sentenced later.

Burney Heeman, another man who is alleged to have been implicated in the Winburne robbery, was on trial this morning on the charge of receiving stolen goods. It being alleged that some of the various articles taken from the Summerville store had been found in his possession.

Perry Heeman, another personage who is suspected of having been connected with the robbery, is non est inventus. The argument of attorneys and the charge of the court were finished about 11 o'clock this morning. The jury in this case could not agree on a verdict. The court gave it further instructions and it is now out.

A Plot to Rob.

The case against J. B. Stels, charged with assault and battery, was taken up before noon. As soon as this is disposed of John Willis, the negro who was arrested on the charge of plotting to rob a widow near Wallace town some months ago, will be attacked. Willis, on Thursday, February 5, is alleged to have started to rob the home of a woman living in Boggs township, but was arrested while in the vicinity of the County home.

The jury in this case is considering the costs, the court advising that there could be no conviction as it required two persons to enter into a conspiracy.

Simmons, the singer's secretary and said "Pulse, 120; temperature 101; respiration, 48. General condition slightly improved. Keep courage."

ELECTION GIVES SATISFACTION

The New School Superintendent Makes Favorable Impression

HE ADDRESSES THE DIRECTORS

Tells Them That He Will Perform the Duties of the Office to the Best of His Ability, and Asks Them to Give Him Their Assistance

After the fifth ballot in the contest for superintendent of the public schools of Clearfield county had been taken Tuesday afternoon and the vote showed that Prof. Welsgerber had been elected by a vote of 84 to a total of 158, the directors applauded the verdict and called upon Mr. Welsgerber for a speech. That gentleman stated he did not wish to give the directors much of a talk at that time, as most of them no doubt wished to take the train for their homes. In a few words he thanked the directors for the high honor they had conferred upon him in choosing him as county superintendent.

Pledge of Faithfulness.

He said he regarded his election an evidence of the confidence the directors had that he would perform the duties of the office to which he had been chosen. He assured the directors that he would be faithful to the trust reposed in him, and urged them to lend him their aid in improving conditions in the public schools of the county. "There are some who have said that the schools of the county are not as progressive as they should be," said Prof. Welsgerber, "I want to say here that if there is anything that the patrons of the schools of the county or of any district want they can have it."

A Popular Young Man.

Prof. Welsgerber said that those who believe that there ought to be more progress in educational matters in this county should not hesitate to demand progressive methods in conducting the public schools.

The newly elected superintendent made a very favorable impression on the directors and spectators at the meeting. He is a young man of ability, who gives promise of administering the affairs of the office in a satisfactory manner. He is at present principal of the schools at Winburne, in which capacity he has won the respect of the pupils and the commendation of the patrons. It is understood that Prof. Welsgerber will move to Clearfield when his term of office begins.

The salary of the superintendent of the public schools is $2400 a year. The term is for four years.

SAYS STRIKERS ARE SMUGGLING ARMS

Reports Reach Denver of Prospect of More Trouble.

Denver, May 6.—The question of disarmament of all factions in the Colorado strike zones became the most important development of the industrial situation. Reports were in circulation that the strikers in Huerfano county had reversed their decision to deliver up their arms, and from Pueblo came word that strikers had succeeded in smuggling arms and ammunition through there to some unknown place.

The strikebreakers in the northern coal fields centering in Boulder county, declared they would work no longer if the mine guards were disbanded unless the federal troops were stationed on mine property to protect them.

In Trinidad Colonel James Lockett, commanding the Eleventh regiment, was expected to take charge of the situation. A part of the regiment was scheduled to augment the federal forces now in control of the southern coal fields under Major W. A. Holbrook.

Captain Edwin F. Carson, who was commander of Company A of the state militia in the attack upon the burning and looting of Ludlow, where twenty-two persons, including two women and eleven children, lost their lives, gave sensational testimony at the Ludlow inquest.

Captain Carson asserted that the men under his command at the battle of Ludlow were not bona fide militiamen, evidence that contradicts a statement made by General Chase, commander of the Colorado militia.

The captain said 90 per cent of them were employees of the coal operators. He said this company was formed April 14, only one week before the battle of Ludlow.

The Hospital Benefit.

Tonight, at the opera house, local talent will give an entertainment for the benefit of the Clearfield hospital. MAJORITY FOR SCALE OF 1912

Question of Resumption of Work at Mines Settled

RESULT OF VOTE NOT IN DOUBT

Proposition to Accept Old Scale Carried Overwhelmingly by the Miners in the District—A Victory for the Officers of the Miners Union, Who Opposed a Strike at This Time.

Indications point to an overwhelming majority in favor of the acceptance of the scale of 1912 by the miners of District No. 2, U. M. W. A. Alexander McMullen, of Madera; George Bassett, of South Fork, and Thomas Haggerty, of Reesiter, tellers appointed to compile the vote of the miners on this question, are now at the union headquarters in Clearfield and are engaged in going over the returns from the various unions.

Over 100 local unions had reported up to noon, and it is stated that a big surprise is in store for the public, not because the miners have decided to accept the old scale, but because of the great majority that will be given the affirmative side of the proposition.

There Will be no Strike.

The result of the vote renders it out of the question that there will be a strike of miners in this district. While the men in some mines object to the car pushing item in the agreement they consider this feature of the question as being less important than the necessity for resuming work. The demand for uniform wages for all outside men is a question that can be settled at a later date.

It is estimated that the proposition to resume work at the mines at the old scale will be adopted by the miners by from 18,000 to 20,000 majority.

Officers Urged Peace.

This result was brought about through the efforts of the officers of the union, who from the beginning of the negotiations and throughout the time previous to balloting, urged the men to resume work and allow their grievances to be considered at some more propitious time.

The officers and a majority of the men who work in the mines in this district are law-abiding men, ready to defend their rights, but never asking more than they believe is just.

Captain Clark Improving.

Word from Johns Hopkins hospital, at Baltimore, is to the effect that Captain T. E. Clark, manager of the opera house, is getting along nicely and is able to walk about. His recovery is only a matter of time.

Is Moving to Town.

Henry Hoover, of Cooper township, near Winburne, is moving to Clearfield today having bought the Kline property on Nichols street, near the West Side M. E. church.

WHY?

Why is Third street, between

disgusting condition.

Good evening! A fine evening
for making that garden.

WARNING TO YOUNG GIRLS.

No girl who meets a young man
clandestinely or stands talking to half-baked lads on the streets at night is free from the criticism of the men who know how easy it is for
a girl to take the first step downward
to destruction. Clearfield may not be any worse in this regard than are hundreds of Pennsylvania towns, but there are too many girls in this town
who risk their reputation by making
the street corners or store doorways rendezvous for lovers' meetings, and unless these gatherings of the thoughtless are broken up by the authorities the morals of the town
are sure to suffer.

On warm nights it is not uncommon to see from a dozen to twenty groups of boys and girls standing on the court house sidewalk or along Market and Third streets. These young people are apparently oblivious
to the comments of passersby, who say nothing good concerning these public trysts. Parents who wonder where their sons and daughters are
at night would discover their whereabouts if they were to walk through the central part of the town. If all other efforts to break up this street
and sidewalk congregating fail,
council should pass a curfew ordinance, compelling all boys and girls
under eighteen years of age to be in their homes at a reasonable hour at night, unless the children are accompanied by their parents or guardians.

Sandy township has been sued for neglecting to keep its roads in repair, and there are other townships
which will be added to the list unless
they get to work on the highways.
Carranza is pronounced as if it were a cussword. Well, it fits the rebel chief, all right.

Still, the crowd which listens to criminal court cases in this town is not as large as one might presume
it would be under the circumstances.

Just so; the young man who dances must pay the fiddler, even if the music is out of harmony.

Here's success to the new county
superintendent of public schools.

"Ita" Says War.

"Ita", the famous young mentalist
appearing in DuBois this week, was asked yesterday as to her opinion on the Mexican situation. Ita said: "I regret that my impressions are that the worst is yet to come. The slow
methods employed by the administration are misunderstood by the Mexican people as implying fear on United States' part, and they will make an assault on Vera Cruz within a few days." Clearfield people will have an opportunity to judge for themselves as to Ita's ability to tell
important things correctly, next week
when she appears in the local opera
house.

BECKER TO FACE NEW WITNESS

Stage Set For Opening of His Second Trial.

TO CORROBORATE SCHEPPS

Confessed Perjurer Says He Was Asked to Swear Falsely by John Becker, Brother of Former Police Lieutenant. Special Panel of Three Hundred May Not Furnish Jury.

New York, May 6.—The district attorney's office has found a new witness to take the place of Sam Schepps in backing up the stories of Weber, Vallon and Rose in the trial of ex-Lieutenant Becker. The witness is a taxi driver named Kohn.

Kohn is said to be the man who drove Weber and Vallon from Weber's poker room in June before the shooting up to One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street and Seventh av.

venue, where they met Becker, and, it is said, Becker declared that too little speed was being made in the effort to get Rosenthal.

It is expected that a panel of 300 specially selected jurymen will be exhausted before twelve men are found that will swear to give him a fair trial for Herman Rosenthal's killing.

On the eve of the trial a statement from Karl Dresner, a confessed perjurer, was given out from the district attorney's office. Dresner declared in the statement that Lieutenant John Becker, brother of Charles, had coached him in the false testimony he gave before Justice Goff the Saturday before the four gun men were executed.

"Framed" to Aid Becker. He declared that he had his story letter perfect before he went to the offices of counsel for the gun men and that his testimony was "framed" with the idea of helping the man who now goes on trial for his life. The perjurer declares he was threatened with death unless he made his false statements.

Dresner explains how he was selected to commit the perjury by a chance remark he made during the first trial of Lieutenant Becker. In the hearing of Patrolman James A. Kelly Dresner remarked, "I think the real murderers of Rosenthal are walking the street."

Kelly, according to Dresner, reported this statement to Lieutenant John Becker, and the perjurer was told to see him. Dresner swears that John Becker told him he could save not four but five lives, the fifth being that of Charles Becker, also that Charles wasn't going back on the police force and was well able to "take care of any one who came to his aid."

COL. E. H. PLUMMER

Provost Marshal Who Is in Charge of Situation Existing at Vera Cruz.

The military governor of Vera Cruz, Colonel Edward H. Plummer, has his hands full in dealing with the shortage of the food supply and other questions that have arisen since occupancy of the city by American troops.

MEXICANS PLAN TO BLOW UP RAILROAD

Would Resist Americans in March to Capital.

Washington, May 6.—Information came from Vera Cruz to the war department that the Mexican federal troops have mined the railroad tracks from Vera Cruz to Mexico City, preparatory to destroying the road, in the event that the American forces attempt a march on the capital. No confirmation had been received of reports that the San Francisco bridge, on the Inter-oceanic railroad, had been damaged.

The mines are reported to be located a half mile apart, and Mexican soldiers have been detailed to light the fuses should hostilities commence. These preparations and the throwing up of defenses, which are daily making the position of the Mexican federal troops stronger, are a source of worry to General Plummer.

Advices to the war department from Vera Cruz were summed up in this statement by Secretary Garrison:

"The latest message received from General Plummer came during the night. In it he reports no change in conditions. He visited the 'Tiger' pumping station. He reports that he is arranging for a proper defense of the pumping station without extending our lines."

Insurance Agent Mine Victim. Eccles, W. Va., May 6.—The body of Freeman Linville, an insurance agent of Charleston, W. Va., who went into mine No. 5 a few minutes before the explosion that claimed 173 lives occurred last Tuesday, was recovered. Identification was made by a Mammoth ring he wore.

Fears For Austrian Ruler. Vienna, May 6.—The persistence of the catarrh which has kept Emperor Francis Joseph indoors for five weeks and the loss of sleep occasioned by his cough cannot be regarded with confidence. His condition is serious.

YOUNGER DURYEA MAY BE DEMENTED

Man Who Killed Aged Father
Has to Be Restrained.

TELLS A RAMBLING STORY.

Said He Heard Burglars In the House.
General Hiram Duryea Was Apparently Killed as He Slept—Seven Bullet Wounds Found in His Body—Was Millionaire Starch Manufacturer.

New York, May 6.—Chester Duryea,
who shot and killed his aged father,
General Hiram Duryea, was arraigned
in the Fifth avenue (Brooklyn) police court on a charge of homicide. General Duryea, a well known starch manufacturer, was shot while asleep in his home.

To Assistant District Attorney Con-
way, who examined him, Chester Duryea told a rambling story of having
thought he heard burglars in the house.
He said that he was working at a book
on marksmanship—he has been known as a crack shot—when peculiar noises
attracted his attention, and he took
his gun and pistol and went to his father's room. As he entered, he said,
his father jumped out of bed, and,
thinking the old man meant to attack
him, he fired. The police found seven bullet wounds in the general's body.

Tried to Injure Himself.
At the police station Chester Duryea
became violent, and even after he was lodged in a cell it was necessary to prevent him from injuring himself. In view of his conduct, which, according to the servants in the Duryea home,
was peculiar, the police are inclined to think the man is at least temporarily insane. He is forty-three years old and has been separated from his wife since 1904. He and his father lived alone in the Bay Ridge house.

General Duryea came of an old Long Island family of Huguenot extraction
and was born at Manhasset, N. Y., in 1834. He went into the starch manufacturing business with his father, and
his brothers, who started an independent concern, later consolidated with the older firm. Hiram Duryea was vice president for years and president
at the time the business was closed in 1899.

He always took much interest in military matters and in 1893 was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Forty-eighth regiment of the state militia.
When troops were raised after the firing on Fort Sumter Lieutenant Duryea
was commissioned captain in the Fifth
New York volunteers, which he commanded later and which came to be known as Duryea's zouaves. He was obliged to retire from active service in the fall of 1892 in consequence of permanent injuries received in action.

After the war he was made a brevet
brigadier general for distinguished
conduct at the battle of Gaines Mills.

Boston Man Refuses
To Accept Place at Head
Of Federal Reserve Board.

Richard Olney, secretary of state during the Cleveland administration, who was offered the governorship of the federal reserve board by President Wilson, has refused to accept the place. He told the president that he could not give up his
law work.

ROOSEVELT EAGER TO FIGHT.

Reported Ready to Hurry Back and Lead Brigade Against Mexico.

A Berlin dispatch to the New York Times says that Colonel Roosevelt is
eager to get into the fray in Mexico,
according to an American official now
in Berlin, who saw the former president a few weeks ago in South America. He says that the commander of the rough riders announced his intention, in the event of hostilities with Mexico, of going home at the earliest possible moment and fighting for his country.

Colonel Roosevelt, who, if he carries
out his plan, will again serve under his friend, Leonard Wood, who was
his colonel in Cuba, said that he intended to organize and lead an entire brigade of cavalry for service in Mexico instead of a regiment. He said that he had his officers all selected.

The auto fever is under control in nice to have as long as they work

The Woodland Cornet band has reorganized for the season, and, under the able management and instructions of Fred Wilkinson, the music
they will render will be something

Next in line will be the reorganiza-in the field that will out class all of the competitors for base-ball honors

can do it again.

a number of high class European aeralacrobatic and equine performances staged under canvass on the style of an American circus. Two rings, an elevated stage, and a large steel arena will be used for the presen-

MARCH TO CAPITAL IS FUNSTON'S PLEA

Failure of A. B. C. Peace Negotiations Seems Certain.

NAVY RENEWS ITS ACTIVITY

Rear Admiral Mayo Anxious For Authorization to Take Tampico—Huerta Threatened by Rebel Attack—Fighting in Capital Predicted by Those Familiar With Situation.

Washington, May 6.—Certain failure of the A. B. C. peace negotiations was predicted in Washington, following the elimination of General Carranza as a factor and the probability of President Wilson's refusal to appoint mediators lest it be a recognition of General Huerta.

Renewed activity by the war and navy departments in preparing to send troops and supplies to Vera Cruz indicated that open hostilities are considered more imminent than at any time since the occupation.

Reports from Vera Cruz that General Huerta is massing an army of 15,000 to drive out the Americans and has mined the railroads to Mexico City to prevent invasion of the capital added to the belief that American troops will soon be fighting in Mexico.

Huerta's preparations for war are known to be a source of worry to General Funston at Vera Cruz, and it is understood that he would welcome orders to start for Mexico City at once.

Admiral Mayo has informed the navy department that he would have no trouble in taking Tampico with his present force. It was learned that he has hinted several times it would be advisable to capture the city.

Emiliano Zapata threatens to attack Mexico City. He announces that Huerta, Blanquet and other army officers will be put to death if he captures them.

General Refugio Velasco, driven out of Torreon by Villa, is expected to lead a military revolt against Huerta, whom he blames for not properly supporting him.

Pedro Lascurain, foreign minister under Madero, has disappeared from Mexico City, and it is feared he has been assassinated.

If Rear Admiral Mayo sends his vessels up the Panuco river, at Tampico, the rebels threaten to flood the river with oil and fire it.

Peace Negotiations Stew. What is recognized unofficially here as certain failure of the peace negotiations of the A. B. C. envoys was emphasized by the renewed activity of the war and navy departments in preparing for a new outbreak in hostilities in Mexico.

That the Huerta government, despite its appointment of mediation envoys, expects war rather than peace and is actively preparing for it was proved by a dispatch from Vera Cruz to the war department saying that the Mexican federal troops have mined the railroad tracks from Vera Cruz to Mexico City in preparation for the destruction of the road in the event the American forces attempt to reach the capital.

Peace Envoys Meet. The South American peace negotiators met as usual, but with less appearance of optimism than at any time since they undertook the work of restoring peace in Mexico. The probability of President Wilson's refusing to appoint mediators lest it be taken as a recognition of Huerta and the final elimination of General Carranza from the negotiations has almost wrecked the hopes of those who have been looking forward to a peaceful settlement.

Preparations for war on the part of the United States are evident in many quarters. Among the most important moves are those in progress at Galveston, where the water front is humming with preparations for the shipment of more men and supplies to Vera Cruz.

The four transports—the Menela, the Sponner, the McClellan and the Kilpatrick—scarcely had swung alongside their piers after their trip from Vera Cruz when scores of cleaners were put to work scouring the ships and putting them in condition to take on more troops.

O'SHAUGHNESSYS REACH U. S.

Lost Baggage and Had to Buy Clothing in New Orleans.

New Orleans, May 6.—Mexicans did not even except Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American charge d'affaires at Mexico City, in preying upon American property after the fall of Vera Cruz. Practically all of the baggage of Mr. and Mrs. O'Shaughnessy was stolen from the special train that Huerta provided for the charge and his party to transport them to Vera Cruz after he had been headed his passports.

Mr. O'Shaughnessy arrived on the special train, and early in the day he and Mrs. O'Shaughnessy began a shopping tour to replenish their wardrobe. The party left later for Washington.

When shown a dispatch from Vera

Cruz saying that he had submitted to Washington, at the president's request, a list of names of Mexicans who might act as a council to take charge of the government in the case of the downfall of General Huerta, Mr. O'Shaughnessy said he knew nothing about it. He refused to discuss the Mexican situation in any of its phases.

A BROTHER'S STORY

Mr. Potter Gives His Version of His Sister's Sad Death.

The following version of the sad death of Miss Bell Potter was brought to the Progress office by one of her brothers and is printed at his request.

Miss Bell Potter, youngest daughter of Wilson Potter, ended her life by taking carbolic acid at the home of her brother, Lee Potter, on Monday, May 4, about 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Bell was in the best health and seemed to be in good spirits in the morning. She left her brother's home to go to town, where she met a friend and appeared to be enjoying herself. She left her friend and returned to the home of her brother. When she was asked to eat dinner she said she did not want anything.

Going into another room she wrote a letter, later going upstairs to her brother's room, who was sick in bed and asked him how he felt. On hearing him say he felt better Bell went into the next room and drank the acid and then ran into her brother's room, falling into his arms. Dr. Yeane was called and was soon at the house, but it was too late as the deadly drug had placed her beyond all earthly help.

Bell Potter was born and reared in Clearfield and had a host of friends, being of a cheerful disposition. She was 19 years, 4 months and 9 days of age, and is survived by her father and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Thomas Miller, of Duquesne, Mrs. James Coyle and Mrs. Thomas Spence, of McKeesport; Mrs. Harry Rife, of Philadelphia, Kay, Cecil and Lee, of Clearfield.

BURNING SHIP A MYSTERY OF THE SEA

Sighted 300 Miles Off Cape Race; No Sign of Life.

Halifax, N. S., May 6.—An unknown steamship is burning 300 miles off Cape Race. The fate of her crew and possible passengers is a mystery, and even her name is hidden by the pall of smoke that hangs over her.

The burning steamer was sighted by the Seydlitz, bound from Bremen to New York. The German ship found no small boats near by, and no sign of life could be seen on board. A wireless call for help brought a response from the Franconia, fifty miles east and bound for New York, and from the Olympic, 200 miles west and headed for New York.

The Sable Island radio station has reported to the Canadian marine department that a message was picked up late Sunday night. It was a faint call, and only a fragment which said "We are on fire; hurry up" was distinguished.

The foremast and the funnel of the burning ship are gone. She is high out of the water, with a high poop, and from appearances has been on fire for several days.

EXPLOSION AT PANAMA.

Eight Persons Killed and Nineteen Hurt—Dynamite Magazine Blew Up.

Panama, May 6.—An explosion at the dynamite magazine of the government of Panama killed eight persons. Nineteen others were seriously injured. The property was destroyed.

The explosion was caused by a brush fire, which made its way to the interior of the building. Six of the dead and most of the wounded were firemen, who had been summoned to combat the flames. A man and a woman who were watching the blaze from a distance were literally torn to pieces.

The concussion of the explosion shook Panama. Besides obliterating the magazine, the explosion caused considerable property damage in the neighborhood.

JOE HOWARD PLEADS GUILTY

Says He Robbed Summerville Store at Winburne

PREPARING FOR CIMO CASE

After a Few More Unimportant Matters Have Been Disposed of the Trial of Philip Cimo, Indicted for the Killing of Marie Burzotto Will Be Taken Up.

Only a few more petty cases stand in the way of the beginning of the trial of Philip Cimo, indicted for the killing of Marie Murzotto, the pretty Italian girl who was mortally shot in Clearfield, on Sunday, March 8, 1914. It is expected that before evening the work of securing a jury will have been begun and it is probable that night sessions will be held in order to expedite the trial of the case.

The jury in the cases in which Peter Kolash and Matt Szozodos, both of DuBois, were alternately prosecutor and defendant, brought in a verdict of not guilty, but that each defendant pay the costs of the other side. The court set this verdict aside, and both men were declared acquitted, the county to pay the costs.

Szozodos was charged with aggravated assault and battery with intent to rob, and Kolash was accused of assault and battery.

Winburne Robbery Case.

Tuesday afternoon the case in which Joe Howard was charged with breaking into, entering and robbing the Summerville store, Tuesday night April 14, at Winburne was taken up. A night session was held and after wasting the time of the court Joe evidently thought it would be to his advantage to plead guilty, which he did and will be sentenced later.

Burney Heeman, another man who is alleged to have been implicated in the Winburne robbery, was on trial this morning on the charge of receiving stolen goods. It being alleged that some of the various articles taken from the Summerville store had been found in his possession.

Perry Heeman, another personage who is suspected of having been connected with the robbery, is non est inventus. The argument of attorneys and the charge of the court were finished about 11 o'clock this morning. The jury in this case could not agree on a verdict. The court gave it further instructions and it is now out.

A Plot to Rob.

The case against J. B. Stels, charged with assault and battery, was taken up before noon. As soon as this is disposed of John Willis, the negro who was arrested on the charge of plotting to rob a widow near Wallace town some months ago, will be attacked. Willis, on Thursday, February 5, is alleged to have started to rob the home of a woman living in Boggs township, but was arrested while in the vicinity of the County home.

The jury in this case is considering the costs, the court advising that there could be no conviction as it required two persons to enter into a conspiracy.

HOPE FOR MME. NORDICA.

Condition of Singer, Ill at Batavia. Shows Some Improvement.

Batavia, Java, May 6.—Mme Lillian Nordica, who has been seriously ill here for several weeks, showed slight improvement.

Boston, May 6.—Continued improvement in condition of Mme Lillian Nordica was reported in a cable dispatch from Batavia, received by William F. Baldwin, her brother in law. The message was from E. R. Simmons, the singer's secretary and said "Pulse, 120; temperature 101; respiration, 48. General condition slightly improved. Keep courage."

ELECTION GIVES SATISFACTION

The New School Superintendent Makes Favorable Impression

HE ADDRESSES THE DIRECTORS

Tells Them That He Will Perform the Duties of the Office to the Best of His Ability, and Asks Them to Give Him Their Assistance.

After the fifth ballot in the contest for superintendent of the public schools of Clearfield county had been taken Tuesday afternoon and the vote showed that Prof. Welsgerber had been elected by a vote of 84 to a total of 158, the directors applauded the verdict and called upon Mr. Welsgerber for a speech. That gentleman stated he did not wish to give the directors much of a talk at that time, as most of them no doubt wished to take the train for their homes. In a few words he thanked the directors for the high honor they had conferred upon him in choosing him as county superintendent.

Pledge of Faithfulness.

He said he regarded his election an evidence of the confidence the directors had that he would perform the duties of the office to which he had been chosen. He assured the directors that he would be faithful to the trust reposed in him, and urged them to lend him their aid in improving conditions in the public schools of the county. "There are some who have said that the schools of the county are not as progressive as they should be," said Prof. Welsgerber, "I want to say here that if there is anything that the patrons of the schools of the county or of any district want they can have it."

A Popular Young Man.

Prof. Welsgerber said that those who believe that there ought to be more progress in educational matters in this county should not hesitate to demand progressive methods in conducting the public schools.

The newly elected superintendent made a very favorable impression on the directors and spectators at the meeting. He is a young man of ability, who gives promise of administering the affairs of the office in a satisfactory manner. He is at present principal of the schools at Winburne, in which capacity he has won the respect of the pupils and the commendation of the patrons. It is understood that Prof. Welsgerber will move to Clearfield when his term of office begins.

The salary of the superintendent of the public schools is $2400 a year. The term is for four years.

The instructions cover particularly the financial operation incident to mobilization and the methods of obtaining railway transportation. Under the regulations the local United States disbursing officers throughout the country would be supplied with funds by the various department quartermasters to move the militia.

SAYS STRIKERS ARE SMUGGLING ARMS

Reports Reach Denver of Prospect of More Trouble.

Denver, May 6.—The question of disarmament of all factions in the Colorado strike zones became the most important development of the industrial situation. Reports were in circulation that the strikers in Huerfano county had reversed their decision to deliver up their arms, and from Pueblo came word that strikers had succeeded in smuggling arms and ammunition through there to some unknown place.

The strikebreakers in the northern coal fields centering in Boulder county, declared they would work no longer if the mine guards were disbanded unless the federal troops were stationed on mine property to protect them.

In Trinidad Colonel James Lockett, commanding the Eleventh regiment, was expected to take charge of the situation. A part of the regiment was scheduled to augment the federal forces now in control of the southern coal fields under Major W. A. Holbrook.

Captain Edwin F. Carson, who was commander of Company A of the state militia in the attack upon and the burning and looting of Ludlow, where twenty persons, including two women and eleven children, lost their lives, gave sensational testimony at the Ludlow inquest.

Captain Carson asserted that the men under his command at the battle of Ludlow were not bona fide militiamen, evidence that contradicts a statement made by General Chase, commander of the Colorado militia.

The captain said 90 per cent of them were employees of the coal operators. He said this company was formed April 14, only one week before the battle of Ludlow.

The Hospital Benefit.

Tonight, at the opera house, local talent will give an entertainment for the benefit of the Clearfield hospital. The program includes songs by Miss Mary Mitchell, Clearfield's popular and gifted young lady, and dances by other well known people. There will be a chorus of 30 people. The public should give the entertainment liberal support.

MAJORITY FOR SCALE OF 1912

Question of Resumption of Work at Mines Settled

RESULT OF VOTE NOT IN DOUBT

Proposition to Accept Old Scale Carried Overwhelmingly by the Miners in the District—A Victory for the Officers of the Miners Union, Who Opposed a Strike at This Time.

Indications point to an overwhelming majority in favor of the acceptance of the scale of 1912 by the miners of District No. 2, U. M. W. A. Alexander McMullen, of Madera; George Bassett, of South Fork, and Thomas Haggerty, of Reesiter, tellers appointed to compile the vote of the miners on this question, are now at the union headquarters in Clearfield and are engaged in going over the returns from the various unions.

Over 100 local unions had reported up to noon, and it is stated that a big surprise is in store for the public, not because the miners have decided to accept the old scale, but because of the great majority that will be given the affirmative side of the proposition.

There Will be no Strike.

The result of the vote renders it out of the question that there will be a strike of miners in this district. While the men in some mines object to the car pushing item in the agreement they consider this feature of the question as being less important than the necessity for resuming work. The demand for uniform wages for all outside men is a question that can be settled at a later date.

It is estimated that the proposition to resume work at the mines at the old scale will be adopted by the miners by from 18,000 to 20,000 majority.

Officers Urged Peace.

This result was brought about through the efforts of the officers of the union, who from the beginning of the negotiations and throughout the time previous to balloting, urged the men to resume work and allow their grievances to be considered at some more propitious time.

The officers and a majority of the men who work in the mines in this district are law-abiding men, ready to defend their rights, but never asking more than they believe is just.

Captain Clark Improving.

Word from Johns Hopkins hospital, at Baltimore, is to the effect that Captain T. E. Clark, manager of the opera house, is getting along nicely and is able to walk about. His recovery is only a matter of time.

Is Moving to Town.

Henry Hoover, of Cooper township, near Winburne, is moving to Clearfield today having bought the Kline property on Nichols street, near the West Side M. E. church.

Visiting Sick Sister.

Mrs. Mary Haney, of Osceola, arrived yesterday to see her sick sister, Mrs. Sara Eckley, who has been seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Woods, East End.

WHY?

Why is Third street, between Cherry and Locust permitted to remain in its present unsanitary and disgusting condition.

Good evening! A fine evening
for making that garden.

WARNING TO YOUNG GIRLS.

No girl who meets a young man
clandestinely or stands talking to
half-baked lads on the streets at
night is free from the criticism of
the men who know how easy it is for
a girl to take the first step downward
to destruction. Clearfield may not be any worse in this regard than are
hundreds of Pennsylvania towns, but
there are too many girls in this town
who risk their reputation by making
the street corners or store doorways
rendezvous for lovers' meetings, and
unless these gatherings of the thoughtless are broken up by the
authorities the morals of the town
are sure to suffer.

On warm nights it is not uncommon to see from a dozen to twenty
groups of boys and girls standing on
the court house sidewalk or along Market and Third streets. These
young people are apparently oblivious
to the comments of passersby, who
say nothing good concerning these
public trysts. Parents who wonder
where their sons and daughters are
at night would discover their whereabouts if they were to walk through
the central part of the town. If all
other efforts to break up this street
and sidewalk congregating fail,
council should pass a curfew ordinance, compelling all boys and girls
under eighteen years of age to be in
their homes at a reasonable hour at night, unless the children are accompanied by their parents or guardians.

Sandy township has been sued for
neglecting to keep its roads in repair, and there are other townships
which will be added to the list unless
they get to work on the highways.
Carranza is pronounced as if it
were a cussword. Well, it fits the rebel chief, all right.

Still, the crowd which listens to
criminal court cases in this town is
not as large as one might presume
it would be under the circumstances.

Just so; the young man who
dances must pay the fiddler, even
if the music is out of harmony.

Here's success to the new county
superintendent of public schools.

"Ita" Says War.

"Ita", the famous young mentalist
appearing in DuBois this week, was
asked yesterday as to her opinion on
the Mexican situation. Ita said: "I regret that my impressions are that
the worst is yet to come. The slow
methods employed by the administration are misunderstood by the Mexican people as implying fear on United States' part, and they will
make an assault on Vera Cruz with-
in a few days." Clearfield people will have an opportunity to judge for themselves as to Ita's ability to tell
important things correctly, next week
when she appears in the local opera
house.

BECKER TO FACE NEW WITNESS

Stage Set For Opening of His Second Trial.

TO CORROBORATE SCHEPPS

Confessed Perjurer Says He Was Asked to Swear Falsely by John Becker, Brother of Former Police Lieutenant. Special Panel of Three Hundred May Not Furnish Jury.

New York, May 6.—The district attorney's office has found a new witness to take the place of Sam Schepps in backing up the stories of Weber, Vallon and Rose in the trial of ex-Lieutenant Becker. The witness is a taxi driver named Kohn.

Kohn is said to be the man who drove Weber and Vallon from Weber's poker room in June before the shooting up to One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street and Seventh av.

enue, where they met Becker, and, it is said, Becker declared that too little speed was being made in the effort to get Rosenthal.

It is expected that a panel of 300 specially selected jurymen will be exhausted before twelve men are found that will swear to give him a fair trial for Herman Rosenthal's killing.

On the eve of the trial a statement from Karl Dresner, a confessed perjurer, was given out from the district attorney's office. Dresner declared in the statement that Lieutenant John Becker, brother of Charles, had coached him in the false testimony he gave before Justice Goff the Saturday before the four gun men were executed.

"Framed" to Aid Becker. He declared that he had his story letter perfect before he went to the offices of counsel for the gun men and that his testimony was "framed" with the idea of helping the man who now goes on trial for his life. The perjurer declares he was threatened with death unless he made his false statements.

Dresner explains how he was selected to commit the perjury by a chance remark he made during the first trial of Lieutenant Becker. In the hearing of Patrolman James A. Kelly Dresner remarked, "I think the real murderers of Rosenthal are walking the street."

Kelly, according to Dresner, reported this statement to Lieutenant John Becker, and the perjurer was told to see him. Dresner swears that John Becker told him he could save not four but five lives, the fifth being that of Charles Becker, also that Charles wasn't going back on the police force and was well able to "take care of any one who came to his aid."

COL. E. H. PLUMMER

Provost Marshal Who Is in Charge of Situation Existing at Vera Cruz.

The military governor of Vera Cruz, Colonel Edward H. Plummer, has his hands full in dealing with the shortage of the food supply and other questions that have arisen since occupancy of the city by American troops.

MEXICANS PLAN TO BLOW UP RAILROAD

Would Resist Americans in March to Capital.

Washington, May 6.—Information came from Vera Cruz to the war department that the Mexican federal troops have mined the railroad tracks from Vera Cruz to Mexico City, preparatory to destroying the road, in the event that the American forces attempt a march on the capital. No confirmation had been received of reports that the San Francisco bridge, on the Inter-oceanic railroad, had been damaged.

The mines are reported to be located a half mile apart, and Mexican soldiers have been detailed to light the fuses should hostilities commence. These preparations and the throwing up of defenses, which are daily making the position of the Mexican federal troops stronger, are a source of worry to General Plummer.

Advices to the war department from Vera Cruz were summed up in this statement by Secretary Goveaux:

"The latest message received from General Plummer came during the night. In it he reports no change in conditions. He visited the 'Tiger' pumping station. He reports that he is arranging for a proper defense of the pumping station without extending our lines."

Insurance Agent Mine Victim. Eccles, W. Va., May 6.—The body of Freeman Linville, an insurance agent of Charleston, W. Va., who went into mine No. 5 a few minutes before the explosion that claimed 173 lives occurred last Tuesday, was recovered. Identification was made by a Mammoth ring he wore.

Fears For Austrian Ruler. Vienna, May 6.—The persistence of the catarrh which has kept Emperor Francis Joseph indoors for five weeks and the loss of sleep occasioned by his cough cannot be regarded with confidence. His condition is serious.

YOUNGER DURYEA MAY BE DEMENTED

Man Who Killed Aged Father
Has to Be Restrained.

TELLS A RAMBLING STORY.

Said He Heard Burglars In the House.
General Hiram Duryea Was Apparent-
ly Killed as He Slept—Seven Bul-
let Wounds Found in His Body—Was Millionaire Starch Manufacturer.

New York, May 6.—Chester Duryea,
who shot and killed his aged father,
General Hiram Duryea, was arraigned
in the Fifth avenue (Brooklyn) police
court on a charge of homicide. General Duryea, a well known starch manufacturer, was shot while asleep in his
home.

To Assistant District Attorney Con-
way, who examined him, Chester Dur-
yea told a rambling story of having
thought he heard burglars in the house.
He said that he was working at a book
on marksmanship—he has been known
as a crack shot—when peculiar noises
attracted his attention, and he took
his gun and pistol and went to his father's room. As he entered, he said,
his father jumped out of bed, and,
thinking the old man meant to attack
him, he fired. The police found seven
bullet wounds in the general's body.

Tried to Injure Himself.
At the police station Chester Duryea
became violent, and even after he was lodged in a cell it was necessary to prevent him from injuring himself. In view of his conduct, which, according
to the servants in the Duryea home,
was peculiar, the police are inclined to
think the man is at least temporarily
insane. He is forty-three years old and has been separated from his wife since 1904. He and his father lived alone in the Bay Ridge house.

General Duryea came of an old Long Island family of Huguenot extraction
and was born at Manhasset, N. Y., in 1834. He went into the starch manufacturing business with his father, and
his brothers, who started an independent concern, later consolidated with
the older firm. Hiram Duryea was
vice president for years and president
at the time the business was closed in 1899.

He always took much interest in military matters and in 1893 was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Forty-eighth regiment of the state militia.
When troops were raised after the fir-
ing on Fort Sumter Lieutenant Duryea
was commissioned captain in the Fifth
New York volunteers, which he commanded later and which came to be known as Duryea's zouaves. He was obliged to retire from active service in
the fall of 1892 in consequence of permanent injuries received in action.

After the war he was made a brevet
brigadier general for distinguished
conduct at the battle of Gaines Mills.

Of Federal Reserve Board.

Richard Olney, secretary of state during

offered the governorship of the federal reserve board by President Wilson, has refused to accept the place. He told the president that he could not give up his
law work.

ROOSEVELT EAGER TO FIGHT.

Reported Ready to Hurry Back and
Lead Brigade Against Mexico.

A Berlin dispatch to the New York Times says that Colonel Roosevelt is
eager to get into the fray in Mexico,
according to an American official now
in Berlin, who saw the former president a few weeks ago in South America. He says that the commander of the rough riders announced his intention, in the event of hostilities with Mexico, of going home at the earliest possible moment and fighting for his country.

Colonel Roosevelt, who, if he carries
out his plan, will again serve under
his friend, Leonard Wood, who was
his colonel in Cuba, said that he intended to organize and lead an entire
brigade of cavalry for service in Mexico instead of a regiment. He said
that he had his officers all selected.
